PUT YOURSELF IN MY SHOES FOR ONE DAY

Good morning y'all, it's 7 a.m. time to get up and start my long day. Seems like it is never going to end. I gotta get up and get going.

NAT SND: Shutter opening

First, before doing anything I need to pray my morning prayer so God can help me with my long day. My class starts at 8:30 a.m. I need to take a shower and fly to Uni since I am not the type of person to be late to any of my classes.

NAT SND: Water from the shower

Oh, it's already 7:40 a.m. and I still need to prepare my morning coffee. I like to boil my coffee nice and slowly to make sure the coffee is roasted.

NAT SND: Sound of the ignition of the stove

It takes me exactly 20 minutes to the University, but I still need to find a parking spot on the busy campus parking lot. Finally, I made it on campus, now I need to run to my class since I only have 5 minutes until my first class starts.

NAT SND: Running footsteps

One hour later I finish my first class, and it's time for the next class which is right after my first class. It's 9:45 and I only have 15 minutes until my next class begins. I run to the market to grab a quick snack before the class begins.

NAT SND: Sound of crunching of the snacks

Now that I finished my first two classes, it's time for the third class of the day, which is one of the hardest classes I am taking this semester. Studio Production. It is a fun class but it needs a lot of practical work on campus since I need to gather and produce weekly reports for my University.

Finally, after 3 classes right after each other, I have some time for myself to get breakfast. I head to TBS which is the bakery shop at Uni and I order my favorite sandwich with some chips and orange-carrot juice. Wow, much needed in order to finish up my hectic day.

NAT SND: Of the noise at TBS

It's time for my last class of the day, I hope it goes smoothly and quickly since I still need to go to work after my last class. Thank god my last class of the day passed by smoothly, and the professor was very nice today. Now it's time for the real-life problems, work!!!

NAT SND: Car engine going off

It takes me about 35 to 40 minutes to get to work from University, and it takes me about 3 to 4 hours to finish my work at my clothing manufacturer. It's nice to play some music on my way to work to take some stress off my mind. I am hoping that everything is going smoothly at work so I don't stay that long.

NAT SND: Favorite music playing in the car

Finally, after finishing my classes and work it's already 8 pm, and it has been a tiring day. Time for me to go home eat, rest, watch some TV, and sleep. Getting ready for a new day with more challenges to come.

It's time to go to my room and sleep. Have a good night bye!!!
